Madama Butterfly tells the tragic tale of Cio-Cio San, a young Japanese woman who falls in love with Pinkerton, an American naval officer. Pinkerton marries Butterfly with no intention of staying, leaving her heartbroken and alone when he sails away. Years later, he returns with a new wife, shattering Butterfly's hopes and dreams.

Puccini's music perfectly captures the emotional depth and cultural conflict at the heart of the story. The haunting melodies of "Un bel dì, vedremo" and "Tu, tu, piccolo Iddio!" convey Butterfly's desperate longing and unwavering faith in Pinkerton's return. The soaring harmonies and dramatic orchestration paint a vivid picture of the clash between Japanese and Western cultures.

Experience a World-Class Performance

OPD 7017 features a stunning performance by the Orchestre Philharmonique Du Capitole De Toulouse under the direction of maestro Tugan Sokhiev. The orchestra's vibrant playing and Sokhiev's sensitive interpretation bring Puccini's masterpiece to life with breathtaking intensity.

Tenor Bryan Hymel's Pinkerton is equally impressive, conveying the character's arrogance and eventual remorse with equal measure.
