Synopsis

In 1942, the USS Walker, a Gleaves-class destroyer, is mysteriously transported to an alternate world called Terra Nova, where the American Civil War never ended and the Great Powers of Earth are embroiled in a global conflict.

Captain Matthew Reddy and his crew must navigate this strange new world, where magic and steam-powered technology coexist. They face threats from both the Confederate States of America and the Imperial Japanese Navy, as well as the dangerous creatures that inhabit Terra Nova.
