

The Department of Justice Report on the Criminal Investigation into the January 6th Attack on the Capitol

On January 6th, 2021, a mob of Donald Trump supporters stormed the United States Capitol Building in an attempt to overturn the results of the 2020 presidential election. The attack was the culmination of months of baseless claims by Trump and his allies that the election had been stolen from him.

In the aftermath of the attack, the Department of Justice launched a criminal investigation into the events of January 6th. The investigation has been one of the largest and most complex in the department's history. To date, the department has charged more than 800 individuals with crimes related to the attack.
