Francis Underwood is a man who knows how to play the game of politics. He is a master manipulator and a skilled strategist. He is also willing to do whatever it takes to win, even if it means breaking the law or hurting others.

The Final Cut picks up where the second season of House of Cards left off. Underwood is now the President of the United States, but his grip on power is tenuous. He is facing impeachment, and his enemies are closing in on him from all sides.

Underwood is determined to hold on to power, but he knows that he cannot do it alone. He needs the help of his wife, Claire, and his loyal allies, Doug Stamper and Remy Danton. But as the stakes get higher, Underwood's relationships with these people begin to fray.

The Final Cut is a fast-paced and suspenseful thriller that will keep you on the edge of your seat from beginning to end. It is a story about power, ambition, and the lengths that people will go to achieve their goals.
