The story begins with a seemingly routine traffic stop. A young woman is pulled over for speeding, but the police officer quickly realizes that something is amiss. The woman is evasive and nervous, and her story doesn't quite add up. As the officer investigates further, he discovers that the woman is a fugitive wanted for murder.

The officer's discovery sets off a chain of events that leads to a deadly game of cat and mouse. The woman, known as Jane Doe, is determined to escape justice, and she will stop at nothing to protect her secrets. As the police close in on her, Jane Doe becomes increasingly desperate, and the body count begins to rise.
