Synopsis

In the gritty underbelly of Murderville, a tale of crime, corruption, and the haunting legacy of one man's demise unfolds. Author Leonidas Grayson weaves a gripping narrative that exposes the hidden epidemic plaguing the city and its devastating impact on its most vulnerable.

Jaquavis Coleman was just another victim in a city consumed by violence. But as Detective Ray Maxwell delves into his case, he uncovers a sinister pattern that runs far deeper than a single murder. The epidemic of Jaquavis Coleman is not just a story of one man's death; it's a chilling commentary on the systemic failures that have left an entire community in the shadows.
